

THE MAQASID SERIES

IBN ASHUR: TREATISE ON MAQASID AL-SHARIAH

by Muhammad al-Tahir Ibn Ashur

Ibn Ashur's famous and pioneering study of the Shari'ah's higher objectives and goals. To restore the intimate contact between Muslims and the Qur'an scholars developed the study of the objectives of Islam. The Shari'ah is marked by a universal wisdom whereby every legal ruling has a function which it performs, an aim which it realises, an intention which it seeks to fulfil and all of this in order to realise benefit to human beings or to ward off harm or corruption.

TOWARDS REALIZATION OF THE HIGHER INTENTS OF ISLAMIC LAW

by Gamal Eldine Attia

This book takes an important step to realize the higher intents of Islamic law (maqāsid al-shari'ah) by attempting to integrate contemporary values and worldviews into maqasid terminology. It also tackles complex theoretical questions on the role of maqasid in ijtihād, juristic theorization (uṣūl), and the Islamization of the human, social, and physical sciences.

IMAM AL-SHATIBI'S THEORY OF THE HIGHER OBJECTIVES AND INTENTS OF ISLAMIC LAW

by Ahmad al-Raysuni

This book represents a pioneering contribution presenting a comprehensive theory of the objectives of Islamic Law in its various aspects, as well as a painstaking study of objectives-based thought as pioneered by the father of objectives-based jurisprudence, Imam Abu Ishaq al-Shatibi; in addition, the author presents us with an important study of al-Shatibi himself which offers a wealth of new, beneficial information about the life, thought and method of this venerable imam.

MAQASID AL-SHARIAH AS PHILOSOPHY OF ISLAMIC LAW: A SYSTEMS APPROACH

by Jasser Auda

Islamic law is about achieving the juridical purposes (maqāṣid al-shari'ah) of justice, mercy, wisdom, and common good. However, many 'Islamic rulings' (fatāwā) issued today effectively replace justice with injustice, mercy with cruelty, wisdom with nonsense, and common good with mischief. This book argues that such rulings do not belong to the Islamic law, even if they were claimed to be so according to some interpretation. In this pathbreaking study, Jasser Auda presents a systems approach to the philosophy and juridical theory of Islamic law based on its purposes (maqāṣid).

MAQASID AL-SHARIAH MADE SIMPLE

by Mohammad Hashim Kamali

Maqāṣid al-sharī'ah, or the higher goals and objectives of Islamic law, is an important and yet somewhat neglected theme of the Shari'ah. Generally the Shari'ah is predicated on the benefits of the individual and that of the community, and its laws are designed so as to protect these benefits and facilitate improvement and perfection of the conditions of human life on earth. This easy to read guide gives a birds eye view of the subject, simplifying its main principles to help readers understand the subject of maqāṣid al-sharī'ah and how it explains the 'wisdoms behind rulings.'

MAQASID AL-SHARIAH A BEGINNER'S GUIDE

by Jasser Auda

Current applications (or rather, misapplications) of Islamic law are reductionist rather than holistic, literal rather than moral, one-dimensional rather than multidimensional, binary rather than multi-valued, deconstructionist rather than reconstructionist, and causal rather than teleological. There is lack of consideration and functionality of the over-all purposes and underlying principles of the Islamic law as a whole. Further, exaggerated claims of 'rational certainty' (or else, 'irrationality') and 'consensus of the infallible' (or else, 'historicity of the scripts') add to lack of spirituality, intolerance, violent ideologies, suppressed freedoms, and authoritarianism.

THE ISLAMIC VISION OF DEVELOPMENT IN THE LIGHT OF THE MAQASID AL-SHARIAH

by Muhammad Umer Chapra

The maqāṣid al-sharī'ah have been either directly stated in the Qur'an and the Sunnah or inferred from these by a number of scholars. All of these address the raison d'être of the Shari'ah which, as recognized by almost all the jurists, is to serve the interests of all human beings and to save them from harm. In this paper Dr. Chapra explores the Islamic vision of development in relation to the maqāṣid al-sharī'ah arguing that Islam has emphasized all the ingredients of human well-being, including the human self, faith, intellect, posterity as well as wealth, for society to flourish.
